

fivenews

your news
uk
world
business
showbiz
features
team talk
five tv

today's feature

If a loved one found themselves in a medical emergency and needed blood, a hospital should be able to provide it. But what about if that loved one happened to be your pet dog? Ruth Liptrot finds out more. Click here.

more...

send us your story

we'll pay you at least £100 plus your name on air

 SMS 84759
(25p + std network rate)

 MMS 07729 555 555
(std network rate)

 PC submission form

terms and conditions

find out more...

features

blood hound

If a loved one found themselves in a medical emergency and needed blood, a hospital should be able to provide it. But what about if that loved one happened to be your pet dog? Ruth Liptrot spent the morning at a London veterinary practice to find out more. Watch it here.

more...

view more features →

today's weather

Today

There'll be a mix of bright or sunny spells and showers for most of Britain today, but persistent rain and strong winds over Ireland will spread into the the west this evening, and to all parts overnight. Potentially damaging 70mph gusts are likely in some exposed parts.